

Once Said or Done

In all the things I've said or done
I shall attest "You are The One!"
No stronger words could I express,
For You were there always to bless.

The words I spoke gone with the wind;
Actions You took as loyal friend.
In anything now, I may do
You are nearby, and I sense You.

And so, I speak, and so I act
With this knowledge on hand, intact;
And as I go about each day,
I live freely, so much to say.

Things said or done, and You forgive
Mistakes I make, but yet I live;
Your Blessings come and touch my soul,
And You, My Lord, are in control.

Henry W. Gurley