

The Ultimate Truth

I've always known one basic fact:
God is a loving god of peace.
He eliminates confusion,
Bringing His Comfort and Release.

He's called me to a life of peace,
Though confusion may show its face.
His Truth, ultimate in its scope,
Shall reign in His Unsurpassed Grace.

I must remember God's in charge,
Endmost again, in full control.
His Loving Hands touch everything;
My involvement? But minor role.

He is Truth, the very essence
Of all things in my belief.
Overwhelmed at times, I call Him,
And He answers. Oh! Sweet relief!
