

Such Comfort

In all the things that I may do
In the events that may betide,
Such comfort do I find in Him . . .
He walks with me at my side.

Such comfort that He's ever near
Should I stumble along the way;
His helping hands prevent my fall . . .
All perils are held at bay.

Extraordinary is His Love,
Its generous nature He shares;
True comfort radiates from Him . . .
I know indeed that He cares.

One day I'll meet Him face-to-face;
His knowing eyes will look at me.
And in my new world of comfort . . .
My heart and soul shall be free.

Henry W. Gurley