

Why Me, Oh Lord?

My mind and body I offer,
Any talent You've given me;
I pray that You may use these, Lord,
In loving services to be.

Whatever You wish me to do,
I know Your Labors as divine;
To You no job too burdensome,
Nor to defeat do You resign.

When I may ask, "Why me, oh Lord?"
In absence of true thankfulness,
I need ask You to forgive me,
You shall do, and You'll surely bless.

It's then I'll offer my being,
Begging removal of all strife;
And then I'll ask, "Why me, oh Lord?"
Thanking You for wonderful life.

Henry W. Gurley