

To Honor Your Name

Enable me with willingness,
That desire to serve those in need.
Less than eager to receive praise
For help offered as but good deed.

You said, 'The last shall be the first.'
I'm aware of those words You said,
And You also said, 'The first, last.'
By these words I am being led.

Of course, I need Your Help to serve,
To act in dedication of
The heart and soul of helpfulness
Accompanying each task in love.

Neither credit nor fame I'll claim.
My wish? To serve, honor Your Name.

Henry W. Gurley