

Paying Honor to Him

I pay honor to Him each day
By frequently pausing to pray;
Guidance and direction I ask
As I perform each daily task.

Is my way over-simplified?
I should think not; He's at my side
Ready to lead me on my way;
That's the reason I pause to pray.

It takes just moments of one's time
To reach out to Him in His Clime;
Outstretched His Hands; He understands;
He offers love without demands.

To Him I'll go in future days,
Honoring Him with my full praise;
I shall ask Him to walk with me;
And it shall happen; it shall be.

He is my love; He is my light;
He's ever-present, in my sight;
To Him I'll go each livelong day,
And yes, indeed! I'll pause and pray.

Henry W. Gurley